2.3.3

Ratio of Mentor to Mentees for Academic Year 2022-23

(Data for the academic year 2022-23)

year	2022
Number of Mentors	126

Year	Faculty	Total No. of Students	Number of Mentors
2022-23	SCIENCE=1309	5394	126
	COMMERCE=1688
	ARTS =968
	SELF FINANCE=1429

2.3.3 Mentor-Mentee Ratio for the latest completed academic year 2022-23

Number of student enrolled	Number of full time teachers on roll	Student : mentor ratio
5394	126	43

Number of Students Enrolled: 5394

This represents the total count of students currently enrolled in the college.

Number of Full-Time Teachers on Roll: 126

This indicates the total count of full-time teachers employed by the college.

Student: Mentor Ratio: 43

The student-to-mentor ratio suggests that, on average, there are 43 students assigned to each mentor within the college's mentor-mentee program. The college's mentor-mentee program aims to provide support and guidance to students by assigning them mentors. Mentors are experienced faculty members or staff who assist students in their personal, academic, and professional development. With a student-to-mentor ratio of 43, each mentor is responsible for supporting and mentoring a group of approximately 43 students.

The mentor-mentee program plays a crucial role in fostering student success and facilitating a positive college experience. It offers students an opportunity to receive personalized guidance, academic advice, and support to enhance their overall growth and development. The college's commitment to maintaining a reasonable student-to-mentor ratio of 43 demonstrates its dedication to providing individualized attention and mentorship to its students.

Introduction to Mentoring

Mentoring is a process for helping someone develops in their current job and also for the future.

- A mentor is a person who offers support and guidance to another; an experienced and trusted counsellor or friend.
- Mentoring is help by one person to another in making significant transitions in knowledge, work or thinking.

Characteristics of Mentoring

- Focusing on the overall development and aspirations of the mentee.
- The relationship being professional and also, to some extent, personal.
- Mentees sharing whatever critical issues impact their professional and personal success.
- Being a long term relationship between the mentor and the mentee.
- The employee's manager is not a critical partner in the mentoring process.

Benefits for the Learner

- Increased confidence/self-esteem.
- Increased sense of value within the organisation.
- Help and support.
- Safe learning environment (can be open about vulnerabilities).
- Focus on specific skills (i.e. coaching from the mentor).
- Ideas about career opportunities.
- Training in new skills (financial, staff management, committee membership etc.)

A brief Report of Mentoring
